Pastor's Notes

*"When Jesus saw that the scribe answered with understanding, he said, "You are not far from the kingdom of God."
Mark 12:34*

The acts of violence in a Pittsburgh synagogue occurred so close to our weekend liturgies that I and many others had not had time to bring them into our prayer beyond an intercession for those who had died. Sadly, we often now react to the news of a shooting or other act of violence with the words, "What now?" Perhaps the intensity of coverage by cable news and social media intensify our awareness of the violence in our nation and our world; perhaps this coverage also dulls our reaction to what has become an all too frequent occurrence. Even the extreme language of our politics now demonizes opposing viewpoints so that we are encouraged to see anyone who disagrees with us as "the enemy."

Jesus challenges us to look upon the "other" with God's heart. He affirms the scribe's insight that love of God is the root of all love and is at the center of the life of the believer. Jesus then affirms that love of neighbor is so closely connected to love of God that the two cannot be separated. If love of God does not lead a person directly to love of neighbor, then it is a lifeless and empty love. To love our neighbor as an essential extension of our love of God brings us close to the kingdom of God.

In Luke's account of this exchange (Luke 10:25-37), the scholar of the law goes one step further to ask, "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus responds with the parable of the Good Samaritan, in which love of neighbor is defined as showing mercy to the one in need of mercy, without distinction of race, creed, or any human distinction. Jesus asks his followers to "Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful"; he insists that the love of one's enemies is a hallmark of the disciple.

It is easy to condemn the actions of a mentally disturbed person who was stirred into violence by the harsh rhetoric in current discourse. Will we apply the same criticism to the rhetoric itself? Will we resist the temptation to be silent when confronted by harsh or violent language? In this Election Week, will we refuse to participate in the politics that call for doom and gloom if the "other party" is elected? Will we instead intervene to tone down divisive conversations and encourage one another to listen to one another and seek common ground? When we encounter an unwillingness to listen or engage in compassionate dialogue, will we nonetheless express our love through kind words, respect for differences, and a true openness to the Spirit's path to harmony and peace?

We are called to be voices of love that strive for peace in word and action. But this demands a willingness to love each person, especially the one whom we do not understand or strongly oppose. Are we willing to be the voices of love that seeks understanding in our homes, our places of work and study, and our daily interactions? Will we live out the commandments of love in the holiday gatherings that will soon be upon us?

Peace,
J. Bill

Scripture Reflection

We are often overwhelmed by the number of laws we are told to follow. There are federal laws, and state laws and county laws. There are rules in families and in schools and in places of work. Even neighborhood associations have a host of laws and plenty of people who drive around looking for violators. Added to all these are the Church laws. In the Church the main body of law is the Code of Canon Law. Every aspect of church administration, sacrament administration, rules for daily life is carried in 1,752 canons or laws. There are divine laws, natural laws, and civil laws. Certainly, we can join the scribe and asking, "Bottom line it for us, Lord. What is it that God really wants us to do to please him?" And Jesus says, "It's not so difficult, "Love God; Love Others."

People often have questions. You have questions. Is this right? Is that right? Everyone is taking this or that stuff, everyone is doing this or that. Why is it wrong? Just apply the law of Love. Is the love of God and the love of others seen in our actions? Or is our own selfishness, our desire to take care of number one, even if that means using others, the real reason we want to do this or that? We certainly live in confusing times. There often appear to be more questions than answers. We are confronted with questions which weren't even considered fifty years ago: What is marriage? What is human life? Does the separation of Church and State give the government the right to limit religious freedom? How can we discern what is right and what is wrong? How do we discern on which side of each argument we Catholics belong? Just apply the law of Love. Love God and Love neighbor. When we do this, life becomes far less complicated. Anything that does not reflect the love of God and neighbor is just a leap into a void.

Taizé Prayer

St. Francis Xavier
and
Grace Lutheran

*All are invited to our
Taizé Evening Prayer
Friday, November 9
7:30 pm
at
St. Francis Xavier*

Taizé Prayer is contemplative and most importantly communal, combining simple repetitive melodies that are sung by all, prayerful silence, scripture reading and intercessory prayer. This prayer can promote a kind to inner unity of person, allowing the spirit to be more open and attentive to what is essential. It is our hope that you will join us, especially at this time when our world is much in need of prayer.

Why Buy Fair Trade Coffee??

The coffee sold at St. Francis Xavier is purchased from Equal Exchange Fairly Traded. There is a lot behind this coffee. “We work closely with our farmer partners, year after year, to better understand each other’s needs. The result is a trusting relationship and delicious coffee.” Beth Ann Caspersen, Quality Control Manager

Fair Trade builds right relationships between buyers and sellers that are rooted in the principles of human dignity and solidarity.

Fair Trade:

- Respects human dignity
- Promotes the common good
- Advances economic justice
- Empowers disadvantaged people
- Connects us with the people who create the things we buy
- Cultivates global solidarity

The Catholic Relief Services Fair Trade Program creates opportunities for us to bring these core values of our faith to bear on the choices we make as consumers—choices that have the power to lift our brothers and sisters out of poverty.

Effort is made to see that these coffee farmers are given a fair wage!!!

Special Circumstances For Receiving The Eucharist

The Catholic Church has historically recognized the intimate relationship of wheat hosts and wine as matter for the Eucharist. However, if you have Celiac Sprue Disease or a family member suffers from a gluten intolerance or if you are alcohol intolerant, receiving the Eucharist is life-involving in seriously challenging ways. The logistics or manner of accommodating lay persons with gluten or wine intolerance in a parish setting during the Liturgy of the Eucharist is left to the afflicted party and the pastor to decide the best way during Mass for the afflicted party to safely receive the Precious Body or the Precious Blood.

If you or a member of your family is affected by this circumstance, please contact our pastor, Fr. Bill Tkachuk, to discuss the particulars of your situation. Fr. Bill can be reached by calling the Rectory Office at 708-352-0168.

Season of Stewardship

Let us go forth
as disciples!

Our Season of Stewardship enters its final weekend. Stewardship is our willingness to acknowledge the blessings we have in our lives and to reflect how we can continue to steward our time, talents, and treasure to act as Jesus' hands and feet in the world.

Thank you to the many parishioners who filled out the Stewardship Intention Form last weekend and those who continue to send them into the parish office. If you have not filled out your card and wish to do so, you can find them in Unity Hall (and turn them into the ushers or the rectory office) or visit the Parish Website (www.sfxlg.org). We are blessed to have this community of disciples who are willing to answer God's call to live as His stewards!

Guest Readers Wanted

You know that look of wonder and joy that children get on their face when they listen to someone read them a story? The St. Francis Xavier Day School is looking for older adults who are willing to occasionally share the stewardship of time as “Guest Readers”. You may occasionally be asked to read books to children, or perhaps to listen to children read aloud. Being able to read and a desire to spend time inspiring children to read are the only skills needed to be a successful reading volunteer. You are never too old to inspire a new young friend! October 17, 2018

For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven
Ecclesiastes 3:1

Dear St. Francis Xavier Parishioners,

As we advance on our school’s journey leading to the graduation of our 102nd St. Francis Xavier class, we reflect on the strong faith-filled educational foundation provided to our children with pride. Strategic planning is a large part of why SFX continues to be a strong parish school. As in any fiscally responsible family, we need to implement changes thoughtfully and consistently to maintain the health and integrity of our SFX family and to make the best use of our resources in support of our mission.

Our parents have been strong in their past support and understanding of the dynamics in housing our parish school. In 1999 SFX school parents graciously accepted the difficult move of our Early Childhood programs to the First Baptist Church building on Catherine Avenue. This move was considered the best response to a spike in enrollment that peaked over ten years ago. The required concessions from the parents of our youngest students were necessary at that period in time. Families were inconvenienced by the logistics of two campus locations; the Early Childhood students were unable to participate in many experiences with their older siblings and the rest of their SFX family.

Data from our strategic planning process made it clear that over the past ten years we have been returning to the strong, but smaller enrollment that preceded the short-term spike at the turn of the century. Two years ago, first grade returned to the Main Campus. This year we could have brought the Kindergarten program to Main Campus but decided to leave the Early Childhood program in one location. However, increased classroom availability at Main Campus next year, and an aging technology system at the First Baptist Church site, have brought us to a decision point. Now that it is feasible, it is time to reunite our students in one school building, rather than continuing to lease space at First Baptist Church. Accepting the mixed emotions of leaving our “temporary” location, which has served us well over the years, we turn to the joyful anticipation of returning the entire Early Childhood Program UNDER ONE ROOF on the SFX campus.

We are excited to announce that in the 2019 – 2020 school year we will WELCOME our Early Childhood Program UNDER ONE ROOF on the campus at St. Francis Xavier Elementary School!

Next year, the parents and students in the Early Childhood Program will once again enjoy the benefits of a one-campus school community:

- All siblings in one location
- One drop-off/pick-up location
- Early Childhood participation in
 - o All School Mass
 - o Living Rosary
 - o Falcon Friends
 - o Assemblies
 - o On-Site Recess
 - o Physical Education, Art, and Music in a central location
 - o Updated technology
- One pick-up location for BASE and more!

Please rest assured that the Early Childhood educational curriculum will remain the same. Rooms will be redesigned to be age appropriate. We will be able to share the classroom designs with you mid-winter when they are completed by the architect.

To the parents and students in the Early Childhood Learning Program, we thank you for your commitment to Catholic Education. WELCOME as we return together UNDER ONE ROOF!

Faithfully,

Children's Liturgy of the Word

Our Saturday evening 5:00pm Mass offers the opportunity for children in Grades Kindergarten-Fourth to experience hearing and reflecting on the Word of the Lord in a way that is an empowering experience. Children in these grades are invited to follow their Reflector of the Word to a prayer space away from the gathered assembly to hear the Scriptures in words they can understand.

Children's Liturgy of the Word takes place in church whenever the children's choirs lead us in song/prayer. The Scriptures we hear will then be taken from the Children's Lectionary and the homily will be given in a way that children are able to relate a little more readily. The children in Grades K thru 4 will go to their prayer space on the Saturdays that the choirs are not singing.

Here is the tentative schedule with the children's choirs:
November 10; December 8; January 5 & 26; February 9 & 23; March 2; April 6

Children in Grades K-4 will be invited to join their Reflector in a prayer space away from the adults and to hear the Word of the Lord in words they can better understand on the following Saturdays (subject to change):

November 17, December 15 & 22;
January 12 & 19; February 2 & 16;
March 9, 16, 23, & 30; and April 27

You can call 708-352-0168 and direct your calls to:
Terri Simeoni, RE Coordinator or
Allen Sterwalt, Director of Music

Come join us for Eucharistic Adoration!

November 15 at 6:00-7:00 pm

WHAT: During Adoration, sometimes referred to as a Holy Hour (but can be of any duration), the Blessed Sacrament is exposed on the altar for individual, silent Adoration. As Catholics, we proclaim the Real Presence of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament, not only during the Mass but in the preserved Hosts. St. John Paul II offered that "our communal worship at Mass must go together with our personal worship of Jesus in Eucharistic adoration in order that our love may be complete."

HOW: Adorers are invited to pray a rosary or other devotions, meditate on Scripture or meditate on devotional books. Adorers may also choose to just simply sit and 'be' with Jesus. If you are interested, prayer and reflection suggestions are available as starting points.

WHO: Jesus waits for us, each of us, in the Eucharist. He waits when we are joyful, thankful, frustrated, or tired. All are welcome, including children. He specifically calls children to Himself, "Let the children come to me."

WHY: Since Apostolic times, Catholics rightly have gathered to celebrate Mass in community as Jesus instructed. Adoration provides an opportunity for an intimate relationship with Jesus through individual worship, prayer, and listening. And we shouldn't underestimate the power of silence, which is difficult to cultivate in our society. Pope Benedict XVI wrote: "In a world where there is so much noise, so much bewilderment, there is a need for silent adoration of Jesus concealed in the Host...It is a source of comfort and light, particularly to those who are suffering."

WHEN: The next opportunity for Eucharistic Adoration will be November 15. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed from 6:00-7:00 pm. Please come when you are able for as long as your schedule allows. If you have any questions, please contact:

Join the Patriotic Rosary

Monday, November 5th is the day before our national elections. On this special day of intercessory prayer, we ask Almighty God to have mercy on our nation and give us the grace to vote in conformity with His will. All parishioners are invited to join in praying the Patriotic Rosary at 5:30 pm immediately following the 5:00 pm mass at St. Isaac Jogues Church, 306 W. 4th Street, Hinsdale. Through the holy Rosary, we invoke the intercession of Our Blessed Lady on behalf of our country and world so in need of peace and reconciliation.

The Patriotic Rosary consecrates each State in the United States to Our Lady in a very beautiful way every time it is prayed. Each mystery begins with a short quote from a speech/letter given by one of the founding fathers or an important person in the early years of the Republic and ends with a patriotic hymn. Rosaries and prayer books will be provided.

Please take advantage of this special prayer opportunity and invite members of other parishes to join us. Let's storm heaven with our prayers and call upon the assistance of all the holy Angels and Saints.

God Bless America, Land that I Love, Stand Beside Her and Guide Her, Through the Night with the Light from Above.

Interfaith Career Network

The Key To Applicant Tracking Systems

Want to make sure your resume gets into the right hands? Join us on Thursday, November 15 from 7:00-9:00 pm and find out what trips up applicants the most and how you can avoid those mistakes. Approximately 50-75% of applicants' resumes are never seen by a human, and the reason has nothing to do with skills or qualifications. Our speaker, Lauren Milligan, has interviewed multiple people who work with ATS systems and will share what she has learned from them with us. Get a much better grasp of how to work the online application system at the St. Cletus Parish Center, 700 West 55th Street in LaGrange. There is no cost to attend this meeting and everyone is welcome.

Interfaith Career Network offers job support through various programs throughout the month. For further information, please visit our website at www.interfaithcareernetwork.org.

AARP Tax-Aide
Needs Volunteers For the 2019
Tax Filing Season

Looking for a rewarding opportunity to make a difference in your community?

The AARP Tax-Aide Program is now seeking volunteers for the upcoming 2019 tax filing season. It's not necessary for you to be an AARP member or to have a tax or an accounting background to volunteer. However, some knowledge of your own personal tax matters is very helpful. All returns are prepared on computers; thus, volunteers should be somewhat computer literate. Training classes will be held in January, 2019. Minimum time commitment during the filing season is 4 to 5 hours one day per week from early February to mid-April.

This income tax preparation and assistance service is offered to low and middle income individuals with special attention to those 60 years and older. Won't you help?

For further information about the program and to sign up as a volunteer, please visit:

or contact St. Cletus parishioner,
John Wagner at 708-352-0170 for further details.

Love cannot be silenced. It never has. It never will.
Let justice roll like a river from the ocean to the hills. ks

The Congregation of St. Joseph invites you to join us as we gather to remember, to pray and to stand in solidarity with the Jewish Community. Hatred, intolerance, violence and racism continue to shatter our communities. We witnessed this once again in the massacre at the Tree of Life Synagogue in Pittsburgh on Oct. 27 which took the lives of:

Joyce Feinberg, Richard Gottfried, Rose Mallinger, Jerry Rabinowitz, Cecil Rosenthal, David Rosenthal, Bernice Simon, Sylvan Simon, Daniel Stein, Melvin Wax and Irving Younger

Once again our hearts were filled with sadness and outrage at the senseless killing. Once again we wept in disbelief. Let us strengthen our resolve and deepen our conviction that God's Love will never be silenced and that hatred will never have the final word. As a community of believers let us celebrate our oneness of heart and purpose.

PEACE CORNER

Diary of Anne Frank. - Relevance today and a Call for Peace.

Anne Frank's story is, at its core is about a normal teenager trying to understand and define her place in an ever-changing world. We hear her developing her own voice in her diary as she stretches for autonomy. She is human. She teases a boy... and later develops a crush on him. She fights PTSD and traumatic nightmares. She is a Daddy's girl. She worries about her friends and is processing her body changing. She gets angsty for absolutely no reason toward her mother. She is a prankster and loves to laugh. She desperately seeks validation and yearns to make a difference in this world.

The Annex family are perfectly imperfect people with their own personalities, as do their families. They are fun and amusing, with own strengths and Achilles heels. They attempt to create normalcy and dignity in the claustrophobic, pressure cooker of living together in hiding...and just when things couldn't get more stressful, they selflessly take in a quirky dentist to save his life. And somehow, unite as family.

The tale is jarringly relatable as we face terror attacks and mass shootings, particularly at schools. Bullying, and hate speech are mainstream. We seem more polarized than ever. Yet, there is hope for us, together. We can find serenity and strength in not giving into a culture of fear and hatred. We can unite in our humanity to find hope amidst adversity. Against hatred. We can create a climate of contagious kindness and give each other the benefit of the doubt... and heal together.

WHY I VOTE

A Deeply Moral Act

Voting is a decisive statement of Christian faith that, I matter, justice matters and others matter. Not to vote is to hand our power and our dignity over to people who fear actual freedom, honest intelligence and faith in the very goodness of humanity. (Richard Rohr, OFM)

Voting for Change

I vote because many of my brothers and sisters can't. I love joining my fellow citizens in a community-minded act. I love having a say in picking the leaders who get to decide on things that matter to me. I vote because so many can't. (Myrna Perez)

Aligning with Harmony

Voting is the easiest part of the process for making positive change and it is the very least that I can do to maintain my integrity. I vote because people's lives matter. I would feel very self-centered for me to say I care about my Earth community (including people and all other creation) and then not do everything I can to make a positive difference, I honestly believe I can make the world a better place. I use my power to help others. (Randy Woodley)

A Better Tomorrow

God created us to be responsible for each other. I vote because I have faith in humanity, and I have hope that together all who believe in a just and peaceful world can elect leaders who choose to govern with courage, perseverance, passion and a deep commitment to human rights. (Sr. Norma Pimentel, MJ)

“What is a U.S. Catholic to Do?” Reflections on Working in Central America Drs. Susan Nedza and Oswaldo Lastres

We cannot do everything, and there is a sense of liberation in realizing that. This enables us to do something, and to do it very well.

It may be incomplete, but it is a beginning, a step along the way, an opportunity for the Lord's grace to enter and do the rest.

-Saint Oscar Romero

As leaders of the Olancho Aid Foundation in Central America, we are often asked the question, “Why do people risk their lives to come to the U.S.? The answer is: “it’s complicated.” It’s complicated by political instability, climate change that threatens farmers, the dissolution of the family, lack of educational opportunity and violence. These forces continually disrupt what little stability exists in the Honduras and make progress difficult. Yet there’s hope, as the Catholic Church is committed to solving these problems.

Yet it’s complicated. For example, in the Diocese of Juticalpa, it has only been 43 years since two priests were kidnapped, tortured and murdered by paramilitary forces. But as in El Salvador, the Church survived. Today, 14 parishes across the 9,230-mile Diocese are served by 25 priests who bring faith formation, bilingual Catholic education and clean water projects through the assistance of U.S. Catholic organizations like the Olancho Aid Foundation.

To learn about the Olancho Aid Foundation visit www.olanchoaid.org. To learn about other organizations working in Central America visit the Catholic Volunteer Network at <https://catholicvolunteernetwork.org/>

FREE PREVIEW Wednesday, November 7
10am-12pm & 7-9pm

The Bible is the best-selling book of all time – over 5 billion copies sold!

Is yours just gathering dust? Join us for The Loyola University Chicago Catholic Scripture School. We are truly enjoying our time together exploring scripture in an interactive setting, and gaining a better understanding of how God is speaking to us through the Bible.

Scripture Study offers many lasting benefits:

- Apply the Bible to life events
- Enrich your personal, spiritual and liturgical life
- Interpret the Bible and its social justice dimensions

Participants are experiencing a transformational encounter with Jesus Christ and formation in Sacred Scripture.

Anyone wishing to deepen their understanding of scripture will benefit from this program.

The first two years focus on biblical study and prayer with the Bible in the Roman Catholic tradition, including a comprehensive study of some major books of the Old and New Testaments. The remaining two years delve more deeply into the Old and New Testaments, covering all other books in the Bible.

Have you ever wished that you could have a conversation with Jesus?

Begin the conversation - participate in Chicago Catholic Scripture School in one of two ways:

Lecture - The "St. Jerome Lecture Series" is for those who wish to learn more about scripture, but are not interested in pursuing a formal Certificate. Participants are expected to read Biblical content, supplemental readings, review assignments, and be prepared to participate in group discussions.

Certification Program – in addition to the above, participants are to complete homework and exams. A Certificate in Scripture Studies provides opportunities for direct involvement in parish life, i.e. catechetical leadership credit and more!

St. John of the Cross Catholic Community, 5005 Wolf Road, Western Springs, IL
