Pastor's Notes

“God forgives us, no matter what and right away.” “That just can’t be right,” someone said to me after hearing these words in my homily last Sunday. It was the “right away” part that created the greatest discomfort. Does this mean that we are free to do whatever we want and be assured of God’s forgiveness? Yes. Does this mean that we do not need to be sorry or even ask forgiveness before God forgives us? Yes. Does this mean that God has forgiven the cruel despots, malicious terrorists, and violent criminals throughout history? Yes.

In the story of the Prodigal Son, Jesus places the father outside the gates of the town, waiting each day for the return of his son. The father does this to protect his son from those in the town who would otherwise punish the son if he were to return. The father does not need to hear his son’s rehearsed apology. He interrupts his son with a loving embrace and orders a feast to be prepared. When his elder son refuses to join the celebration, the father goes out to plead for him to come home. At the end of the story, it is the elder son who remains out in the cold and dark for his refusal to accept his father’s mercy toward his brother. We are left unsure as to whether this son will stubbornly remain in the darkness, or join the celebration to which he is invited.

God forgives us, no matter what and right away. So why do we celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation? The process of forgiveness is a two-part exchange: one person chooses to offer forgiveness and the other chooses whether to receive it. God loves us so deeply that God offered the life of God’s Son to free us from the power of sin. There is nothing we can do that God will not forgive, and God chooses to forgive us immediately. However, God leaves it to us whether to accept the forgiveness that God offers. Our acceptance involves acknowledging that we have sinned and confessing our sorrow for having done so. So, does God forgive the perpetrators of hatred and violence? Yes. Does each of them open his or her heart to accept that forgiveness? I cannot know until I reach the gates of heaven. But I pray to be willing to share a place with anyone who does so, lest I find myself stubbornly out in the cold darkness, unwilling to share in the banquet table of heaven because “they” have been invited.

I encourage you to participate in the Sacrament of Reconciliation this Monday night at St. Francis Xavier or Tuesday night at St. John of the Cross. Join the children and youth of our parish who have celebrated this sacrament in recent weeks. Accept God’s forgiveness into your heart to transform your life.

A blessed St. Patrick’s Day to the Irish among us; and thank you to the members of the Irish American Musicians who join us at the 5:00 Saturday Mass this weekend. A blessed St. Joseph’s Day to the Italian, Polish, and those of other nationalities who celebrate Joseph as their patron. May the all the saints encourage and guide us!

Peace,

J. Bill

Scripture Reflection

Reflection for the 5th Sunday of Lent
Liturgy Planning Team #3

David Sherman, Barbara Kalnes, Gertrude Nalumansi, Charles Brewick, and George Rutkowski

Spring is in the air! Our gardens are showing signs of new life. Time to turn over a new leaf? Indeed, it is time to brush away the dried leaves and make way for the season of rejuvenation and renewal. Are you prepared for the new growth emerging in our midst?

Today and each day, God extends to us a new covenant, a holy bond to live by, more accessible and intimate a relationship than ever before. Like seeds planted in fertile ground, God instills the wonder and wisdom of the divine in each of us. Spiritual gifts rise up from deep within us like fresh shoots reaching out from within the “garden” of our heart.

The hectic pace, stress, and ongoing distractions of everyday life, however, can make it difficult to stay rooted in our Christian values. Keeping our part of the covenant can be challenging, yet our cooperation is essential to God’s plan.

No doubt, our world is greatly troubled and, too often, evil gets the upper hand. Yes, we do trust that God is present in all circumstances, yet sometimes it’s difficult to get past the confusion and pain we experience. Suffering comes in many forms: physical, mental, emotional. Yet, by the Cross of Jesus, we are set free and made whole, healed and perfected through the suffering we share with Christ who loves us no matter what.

Graces abound in this divine relationship, which is so deeply rooted in our hearts that it can never be taken away. As dedicated disciples in Christ, let us keep the Lord’s presence and his new covenant at the forefront of life. This will help us make right choices and grow closer to God as we go forth to share the Lord’s love and mercy with all we meet each day.

Lenten Stewardship of Talents

God is calling to us during Lent. How will you answer? What ministry will you join?

On Good Friday, March 30, the Lay Ecclesial Movement Communion and Liberation, together with many other Lay Ecclesial Movements, parishes, groups and individuals, will walk the 13th Annual The Way of the Cross around downtown Chicago. We will follow the cross silently through the busy city, living the memory of the Passion of the Lord, with stops that include gospel readings, meditations, and choir music.

We warmly invite you and all members of St. Francis Xavier to join us at 8:45 am at Daley Plaza (Dearborn/Washington). We will then cross the Chicago River over the Michigan Avenue Bridge and conclude at Holy Name Cathedral around 12:00 pm, stopping for meditations along the route.

For more information, please visit www.wayofthecrosschicago.org, call 312-725-7370, or email us at info@wayofthecrosschicago.org. Your questions and comments are welcome.

VOTER INFORMATION

“As Catholics we are not single issue voters. A candidate’s position on a single issue is not sufficient to guarantee a voter’s support. Yet a candidate’s position on a single issue that involves an intrinsic evil, such as support for legal abortion or the promotion of racism, may legitimately lead a voter to disqualify a candidate from receiving support.”

Faithful Citizenship NCCB 2016

Since it is difficult for the average citizen to find accurate information about how the many candidates stand on the life issues, Illinois Right to Life Action has prepared non-partisan voter information based on responses to a questionnaire, public statements, and/or voting records. This guide is not an endorsement and may not be used to advance the candidacy of any individual.

For information go to the IRL Action web site at www.VoteProLifeIllinois.com or call 630-358-0042 for assistance. In light of the HB 40 Bill that forces all people of faith to pay for unlimited abortion with their tax dollars, it is more critical than ever to know how candidates stand on the life issues.

Lent 2018
Catholic Lenten Practices

Fasting and Abstinence

All Catholics 14 years of age and older follow the discipline of abstinence from all meat on Ash Wednesday and every Friday of Lent, including Good Friday.

All Catholics 18 years of age, but not yet 59 years of age, follow the discipline of fasting on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. We eat only one full meal on a Fast Day and other smaller meals necessary to maintain strength and health.

Almsgiving

This traditional Lenten practice is associated with Fast and Abstinence. Money saved as a result of eating less or from “giving up” is given as alms to others who are hungry. CRS Rice Bowl or the St. Vincent de Paul Society are suggested charities for Lenten alms.

Prayer

During Lent all are called to renewal of our relationship with God through personal prayer. The community has opportunities for Lenten prayer as well:

Stations of the Cross

will be prayed at 8:20 am on Fridays

The Sacrament of Reconciliation

The Lenten Season of Repentance and Renewal is the most appropriate time for Catholics to confess sin and celebrate absolution.

Parish Reconciliation Service

Monday, March 19 at 7:00 pm

Individual Private Confession

Saturday morning—9:30 am

Saturday evening—4:15 pm

Private Prayer in church each day.

Parish Reconciliation Service

Please join us as we celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation with seasonal music, scripture and reflection this Monday, March 19 at 7:00 pm in church. The Lenten Season is a wonderful time to celebrate reconciliation and prepare for the coming of the Lord.

The St. Francis Xavier Day School is one of the many wonderful ministries within the St. Francis Xavier Parish. We are fortunate to have an active School Advisory Board that works throughout the year on behalf of our school and parish community.

The purpose of the School Advisory Board is to:

- Develop, formulate, and adopt policies which govern the operation of the School
- Review and advise on the annual budget and determine sources of funding for the School
- Provide counsel and advise on the operation of the School
- Participate in the school's development, student recruitment efforts, and long-range plans
- Assist in achieving the goals and objectives of the new St. Francis Xavier Elementary School Three-Year Strategic Plan
- Promote the School and support the School's public relations and marketing efforts

The Board currently consists of eleven members who each serve a three-year term. The School Advisory Board will be reviewing its structure in light of the new School Strategic Plan. Currently, board members are organized across five main areas of concern:

- Tenet 1: Inspire our students to do God's work
- Tenet 2: Offer an excellent academic experience
- Tenet 3: Provide a sustainable Catholic education
- Tenet 4: Engage the community
- Tenet 5: Create and maintain a physical space that inspires

Children's Liturgy of the Word

Our Saturday evening 5:00 pm. Mass offers the opportunity for children in Grades Kindergarten—Fourth to experience hearing and reflecting on the Word of the Lord in a way that is an empowering experience. Children in these grades are invited to follow their Reflectors of the Word to a prayer space away from the gathered assembly to hear the Scriptures in words they can understand.

Children's Liturgy of the Word takes place in church whenever the children's choirs lead us in song/prayer. The Scriptures we hear will then be taken from the Children's Lectionary and the homily will be given in a way that children are able to relate to a little more readily. The children in Grades K thru 4 will go to their prayer space on the Saturdays that the choirs are not singing.

Here is the tentative schedule:
March 24—Choristers

Children in Grades K-4 will be invited to join their Reflectors in a prayer space away from the adults and to hear The Word of The Lord in words they can better understand on the following Saturdays (subject to change):

March 17; and April 7, 14, 21 & 28

You can call 708-352-0168 and direct your questions to:
Terri Simeoni, RE Coordinator or

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Office of Human Dignity & Solidarity-Immigration Ministry

"I invite the whole Church, and men and women of good will everywhere, to turn their gaze on this day to all those who stretch out their hands and plead for our help and solidarity. God created the heavens and the earth for all; yet sadly some have erected barriers, walls and fences, betraying the original gift meant for all humanity, with none excluded. -Pope Francis

The fate of nearly 1.8 million Dreamers remains uncertain as Congress has yet to reach a bipartisan deal.

Your advocacy is critical to help the nearly 1.8 million Dreamers, young people who were brought into the United States by their parents as children. They may face deportation unless Congress reaches a bi-partisan deal to protect them. We support these young people who are contributors to our economy and leaders in our parishes and communities.

ACTION: The USCCB asks you to pray, fast and act by urging Congress to work together for a permanent solution for Dreamers. Call 855-589-5698 to reach the Capitol switchboard. For resources, talking points and postcards visit the USCCB website: www.justiceforimmigrants.org.
