Pastor's Notes

More than ever, believers in the Lord, great numbers of men and women, were added to them.”
Acts 5:14

Luke describes the early decades of the church as a time of tremendous growth in number and spirit. Many experienced healings of body, mind, and spirit. Disciples carried the message of the Risen Lord throughout the Mediterranean. Believers gathered in homes, catacombs, and the simple first church structures, remembering themselves in Christ by recalling his words and actions and breaking bread and sharing the cup, as he had asked them to do. It was a time of dynamic evangelization!

Renew My Church, the Archdiocesan effort to revitalize Chicago area parishes to live our mission more fully, is primarily an evangelization effort. What could we accomplish if even half of those who helped to fill our church and gym yesterday were with us in prayer, learning, and service on a regular basis? What could God do through us if more of those who attend regularly felt called and invited into one of our many parish ministries? How can we ensure that we are not the initial community of the disciples who remained locked in an upper room for fifty days; how do we rather become the transformed community who went out to all to bring the healing love of Christ to all who would receive them? May we come to know a new moment of dynamic evangelization of one another in Christ that reaches out to the communities in which we live and serve!

St. Francis Xavier Parish is blessed with an abundance of talented women, men, and youth who generously share their gifts. The services of Holy Week call for extra time talent, and effort; countless parishioners respond each year. They decorate and redecorate our places of worship, inside and outside; they rehearse music through many extra hours of practice; they attend special practices to prepare readings and sign up for extra duties as ministers of communion, servers, and ushers; they journey with those preparing for baptism and full communion with the Catholic Church; they launder and prepare extra altar linens and tend to the candles; they distribute food so that families in our community can have an Easter dinner and food for the rest of the week. All are supported by the extra efforts of our parish staff, which provides guidance and administrative and facilities support. Each person gives according to her or his talent and ability in ways that we may come to take for granted in the simple beauty of what we experience. Thank you and God bless you all!

This weekend at most Masses, families who participate in our parish School of Religious Education witness to how their stewardship in this program and in other ways has become a blessing in the faith life of their family. Thank you to the families who have offered to do this.

This Sunday at the 10:30 Mass, Fr. Keith Muccino celebrates his last Mass with us before he begins his new assignment in Worcester, Massachusetts. All are invited to a reception after Mass in God's Garage to give thanks and celebrate the blessing that Fr. Keith has been for our Sunday celebrations. Fr. Keith, we send you with our thanks and prayers for a smooth transition. Know that you always will have home among us.

Easter Peace,

Fr. Bill

Scripture Reflections

“On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, “Peace be with you.””

Peace be with you is an interesting phrase. He could have said so many things. “I’m Back!!!” would have been a good one. Or “Yeah, did you really think my father would let those bad guys win.” Or, “I told you so.”

Considering that the text says that the doors were locked because of the fear of the Jews, he certainly could have said, “Don’t worry, I have got your backs.”

No he says, “Peace be with you.” He even says it twice. Why?

The Gospel of John has already talked about the morning experience of the empty tomb as witnessed by Mary of Magdala, Peter, and John. He has also related about Mary seeing Jesus and rushing back with the news. Yet, the disciples locked the room that evening. If they knew Jesus had risen, why were they afraid?

The Gospel story says that they were afraid of the Jews. I am sure that they were. But I believe that their true fright was what Jesus would say and do to them when he found them.

Remember they were the ones who had abandoned him. They did not speak up. Their witness was to run and hide. And then, of course there was Peter. Despite his bravado at the Last Supper, he would deny even being a disciple, let alone an apostle. No, they felt ashamed and were afraid of the “Risen One.”

That explains the first words of Jesus, “Peace be with You.” He could tell that just His presence had caused such a shock that they had missed what He said. He needed to say it again. “Peace be with you.” And to show all was forgiven and he was not going to get rid of them and choose others, He mandates them to continue the mission that He wanted them to do all along. “As the Father sent me, so I send you.” Then to assist them, he breathed on them and gave them the Holy Spirit.

We know that after Pentecost, they were a different people. Certainly the Spirit gave them courage, but it was the Lord’s forgiveness that opened their hearts to receive it. Mercy was the key. May mercy once again lead us and our world to better places.

Commemorative Anniversary Book

We are thrilled to introduce the St. Francis Xavier Parish 125th Anniversary book. This commemorative edition contains a history of life at St. Francis Xavier from 1890 to 2015. In its vibrant, colorful pages, hundreds of parishioners and parish leaders share their memories and stories of our parish.

The book is organized into three segments: Past (showing our early history), Present (highlights from 1990 to 2015) and our Investment in the Future (our Capital Campaign and Capital Projects, with approximately 1,000 parish families listed over ten pages who pledged their time, talent, and/or treasure).

The gift of stewardship of hundreds of SFX parishioners is what makes these pages full of warmth and love. Please don't miss this special opportunity to take home a piece of our shared history that will be treasured for generations. The book is $40 and can be purchased by visiting the parish website (www.sfxlg.org) or using the order form below. Orders end June 22, 2019, and books should be back from the printer by end of August. Distribution of the books will take place in Unity Hall, and you will be notified when your copy is ready.

DAY SCHOOL

Family and School Association

The St. Francis Xavier Family and School Association, better known as FSA, provides the supportive link between the families and the school. We are composed of five board members, 40 different committees and hundreds of volunteers. All day school families are members of FSA.

The FSA supports many committees throughout the SFX school community from enrichment programs that enhance curriculum to service that occur after school hours for students and families to come together and have fun. All of our committees are run by parent volunteers.

Coleen Olson, past president of FSA, shared the following: "I joined FSA to help bridge the gap between school, parish and families with the many moving parts that comprise such a vibrant community. I especially wanted to help the Xavier community and guide them in getting involved through service. Sending your children to a school with parish community can feel overwhelming. FSA fosters the idea that getting involved can be the key to making connections and friendships that can last a lifetime."

Several highlights during my time on the FSA Board (2015-2017) include welcoming a new principal and saying goodbye to our friend Fr. John Hoffman as he retired, helping us remember that kids and teachers both make up the backbone of the school community alongside our leaders, whether new or old. Another fun highlight was expanding the teacher and staff appreciation program to a monthly event.

A memorable moment... One of the monthly teacher appreciation events was Morning Coffee Cart. We rolled a cart from classroom to classroom with flavored coffee, fruit and baked pastries. Sometimes a small treat can really make someone's day!

Another favorite memory... While we are fortunate to have Fr. Hoffman leave in 2017, FSA wanted to send Fr. John off the children's FSA compiled drawings and essays of "How they see the light of love or peace in everyday life at St. Francis School or at home" into a book dedicated to Fr. Hoffman which was presented to him on the last day of school.

Having been part of the FSA Board allowed me to see the many moving parts that help make up St. Francis Xavier Support systems that truly help nurture the children as strong and loving individuals."

Bees Plus

"Faith in Action" is a hallmark of St. Francis Xavier. One example is our participation in BEE'S PLUS (Building Emotional Resilience through Spirituality). BEE'S PLUS was founded in October 1988, with St. Kobby Sherman as president and Dr. Dorothy Lynch as our parish coordinator of volunteers. In October 1988, St. Francis Xavier began providing emergency overnight shelter in Joyce Hall (October through May) to homeless men, women and children. Hundreds of volunteers have helped over the years, providing warmth and shelter. BEE'S PLUS provides and supervision on Monday nights from 7 p.m. to 7 a.m. In 2016, evening guests totaled about 40 people. BEE'S PLUS is one of seven faith communities in the western suburbs who together provide emergency shelter care at 10,101 Light Avenue to provide permanent residences to 30 individuals who have experienced homelessness.

Stewardship Alive within the School of Religious Education

What would our parish look like if all of God's believers actively chose a stewardship way of life? This weekend at most of the Masses, members of our School of Religious Education reflect on what stewardship within the parish has meant to them - how it impacted their spiritual lives and their hopes for this SFX community. Mary Atseff, Caroline Dillon, Lisa Foster and David Vlcek have each graciously agreed to share their individual stories at Mass during the homily. May the Spirit be with them! Stewardship Alive within the School of Religious Education.

All of us at St. Francis Xavier Parish have a special interest in each of our families. The purpose of the SFX Religious Education Program is to support parents in their role as the primary catechists, or faith educators, of their children.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank our catechists and support staff who give of their time freely as they journey with the children of our parish and are of support to the parents of these children. As we approach the end of this school year, know that the journey we have been on with the children has been enriching and life giving. May we all continue to find God's presence very much alive each and every day as we live out our baptismal call and are of service to others.

My heartfelt gratitude is also extended to our Parish community for your financial support of all of our parish ministries. Together we make God's work happen!

BUILDING COMMUNITY AT ST. FRANCIS XAVIER

REVISED WEEKDAY MASS SCHEDULE~JULY 1, 2019

Beginning July 1, both St. Francis Xavier and St. John of the Cross expect a reduction in priest associates as the number of available priests dwindles. St. Cletus faces the same situation next summer. Both St. Cletus and St. John of the Cross already offer only one weekday morning Mass. Fr. Bill recently initiated a process to adjust our weekday morning Mass schedule to adapt to the number of priests available for weekday Masses and for special Masses, such as funerals.

On March 5, Fr. Bill invited those who regularly attend weekday Mass into the rectory for paczki and a conversation around the best time for a single weekday morning Mass. The consensus of the 7:45AM worshippers was to schedule the Mass no later than 8:30. The consensus of the 9:00AM worshippers was to schedule the Mass no earlier than 8:15. The parish elementary school offered that an 8:30AM Mass would be least disruptive when students attend the weekday Mass at various times during the year.

Beginning July 1, 2019, St. Francis Xavier Parish will offer one weekday Mass at 8:30AM on Monday through Friday. (We will continue to celebrate Mass on Saturday morning at 9:00AM.) St. Cletus will continue to celebrate weekday Mass at 8:00AM; St. John of the Cross is moving their weekday Mass to 9:00AM in mid-June. Our intent is to provide three distinct times in an area weekday Mass schedule and to accommodate the needs of as many people as possible. Several SFX parish leaders have offered to provide an early communion service two or three days per week; details will follow.

We will not consider changes to the Sunday Mass schedule at this point. This would presume the loss of an associate pastor; it also would involve a much broader conversation that would continue into the fall. Any changes to the Sunday schedule would not be implemented in the current calendar year.

We will begin accepting Mass intentions for 2020 on Monday, April 29, 2019. We will accept multiple intentions for two designated Masses each week (Mondays & Sundays). Since the Sunday Mass schedule for 2020 is subject to change, we will accept intentions for four Sunday Masses in the 2020 Mass Book without designating the time for each Mass. Mass times will be inserted into the Mass Book when we have finalized the 2020 Sunday schedule. The Mass card for a Sunday Mass will provide only the date of the Mass.

We appreciate your patience and understanding as we discern the best way to steward available resources to serve the spiritual needs of our parish and the parish grouping of which we are a part.

BACK DOOR THEATER

If you are entering the 6th through 10th grade in the Fall of 2019 and looking for a creative summer experience in theater and stage production, Back Door Theater is looking for you! The Back Door Theater is a co-operative drama ministry of Grace Lutheran and St. Francis Xavier Churches (members of all churches and denominations are welcome) that offers teens and pre-teens a casual opportunity to explore the theater arts. Entering its 19th season this summer, this drama ministry uses the theater arts of acting, voice, dance, instrumental performance, set design and back stage production to explore traditional Biblical stories and characters through a fun, contemporary, original play. The plays are faith based but always include modern references and are written in the language of teens.

Workshops are held 2 nights a week for 6 weeks. This year's performance will take place on July 13, 2019. We are also looking for adults who would like to join our staff or contribute in any way. BDT alumni this is a great opportunity to give back to the program you loved in your teen years.

Registration packets can be found at the back of church and in the rectory office. For questions or further information, please call Becky Hayes at 708-878-2790 or email at bechayes@sbcglobal.net.

Area Respect Life Ministry

Letter Writing Campaign

Please stop by Unity Hall after all Masses this weekend to sign a letter to area legislators to vote NO on HB 2467/SB 1594 'Parental Notice of Abortion Act' and HB 2495/SB 1942 'Reproductive Health Act'.

House Bill 2467 and Senate Bill 1594 are identical pieces of legislation that would repeal the Illinois Parental Notification of Abortion Act. The current law requires a parent or legal guardian be notified when a minor seeks an abortion. Since its enactment, abortions obtained by minors have dropped fifty-seven percent.

House Bill 2495 and Senate Bill 1942 are identical bills that would strip unborn persons of any protection under the law. Abortion could be obtained at any stage or pregnancy. This legislation also repeals the Abortion Performance Refusal Act, which protects doctors, nurses, and hospitals, who refuse to permit, recommend, perform, or assist in abortion. In so doing, rights of conscience, especially religious objections, will be lost. It would also remove various health regulations from abortion clinics in Illinois and would allow non-doctors to perform abortions.

It only takes a minute!
Thank you!

We hope you'll celebrate Pentecost by being a part of an outreach experience with family, friends and fellow parishioners.

PAST SERVICE DAY REFLECTIONS

It was fun because I looked at other peoples' faces and they were happy.

It was humbling to see something I take for granted as a need for others.

Inspired, aware of so many things, filled with hope, eyes open, desire to help, listen, pray, sisterhood.

Even though we didn't see the people who would actually receive the 'fruits of our labor', it made the work seem so much more important keeping them in mind during our time.

I got a workout!

I truly felt like I lovingly touched suffering lives and I enjoyed the company of the other volunteers.

I thought about the prison inmates who will be reading (the cards) and believe they will be touched by being remembered.

Today will remind me to add them to my prayer list from now on.

Little White Books – Easter Season

Little White Books are now available in church and in the rectory for those wanting to continue daily reflections throughout the 50 days of the Easter Season. Reflections on the right hand pages are based on the Sunday Gospels, with some additional readings to focus on the sacrament of confirmation and on the Holy Spirit. The reflections continue until Pentecost Sunday, June 9th. The left-hand page includes a combination of Catholic traditions and customs, the saint of the day, historical facts, and information about the Easter season. This Little Book has been carefully crafted to help you explore the depths of Scripture and deepen your relationship with Christ.

May we have your feedback?

The Spiritual Life Board and the Leaders of the Small Faith Groups are interested in hearing your feedback about the Living Faith Lent book used for daily prayer this Lent, versus the Little Black Books last year. The Joy of Lent

On April 5, Fr. Stan Ilo gave a second Mission Talk by addressing the topic: Someone Beautiful to God - Discovering God's Purpose in our Lives. Below are some highlights. Thanks, Katie McCarthy, for the summary.

Jn. 1:35-42 “What are you looking for?”

If you have a pulse – then you have a purpose!

Consider your purpose/direction of your life

*Are you headed in the right direction?

*Are you happy where you are?

You are on a sacred journey with God. Your life is not an accident. You were fashioned by the Master.

Your qualities, character, beauty are unique unto you. They make up who you are.

If you are where God wants you to be, then you will find peace.

Life does not have a flight plan to follow.

So what is your mission?

How can you find joy, peace, and fulfillment?

Do you long for who you were?

Do you have regrets?

Are you DEEPLY happy or is it make believe within your heart?

Lent = a time for course correction.

What obstacles keep you from flourishing – becoming what God wants you to be?

The starting point of every journey must begin by seeing the hand of God in your life and allowing Him to be a part of the journey.

When you are struggling – do you see God?

We need a personal relationship with God.

It is not a one way street, rather an interpersonal relation. God is looking for partnership with us. God < - > Us

Why did God make you? To have union with you.

Love Him. Know Him. Serve Him. One day, Dwell with Him

Go out and bear fruit so His love will be more prevalent in the world.

Steps to Finding Purpose – Experience a relationship with God

Create a space in your heart for God so you can experience His love. He is always near. He speaks to us in our happiness and screams to us in our pain – CS Lewis

7 Steps to help move from seeing the Lord to embodying Him in all you do:

What are you looking for?

Ask yourself this in prayer.

When you are mean or angry - ask yourself the question – what is your motivation for your actions?

Pay attention to what is happening around you.

God speaks to us in the context of our daily lives

Make good friends – those who add value to our life, support you, and see beauty in you

Prune your life – some relationships may need to go so you can realize your mission

Develop a listening attitude. Pay attention.

Do you listen to God? Do you make time to listen?

“Speak Lord, your servant is listening.”

God has a plan for each of us.

In your struggles, your life is in God's hands

“He has done all things well” – Gospel of Mark

Only GOD can do all things well. So don't be so hard on yourself or judge others too harshly.

You can't do it alone.

Exodus 17:12 – Moses hand's grew weary

Find others who can help you, especially when you are struggling.

Everything you do should stand with love and be done with love.

1 Cor 10:3 – If I give away all I possess, but have not love, it will do me no good.

The purpose of life is to share God's Love.

Go beyond yourself – commit to the project of loving. Put it in everything you do and God will Smile.
