Pastor's Notes

*"As I have loved you, so you also should love one another.
This is how all will know that you are my disciples."*
John 13:34-35

"If you were accused of being a disciple of Jesus, would there be enough evidence to convict you?" I first heard this challenge in a homily over thirty years ago. It goes to the heart of the parting words of Jesus in today's gospel. Christians can be identified as those who have received the sacrament of Baptism and possibly the sacraments of Confirmation, and Eucharist. In recent weeks, we have invited over 180 children to the table of Eucharist and have shared the gifts of the Spirit with over 170 youth. Our faith community is enriched by the efforts of parents and catechists and the willingness of young people to pursue a deeper understanding of our faith.

Christians who desire to be disciples of Jesus, however, will go a step further. Jesus proclaims that his disciples are those who both profess and live their faith; that is, who love others in word and deed. Love in action often takes us farther than we want to go. In civil society we often build walls between those we consider "like us" and those who are "strangers," motivated by a desire to protect what is ours or out of fear for how the "other" might change us. As Peter and the first disciples learned, a living faith breaks down the barriers we create and opens our eyes and hearts to see as God sees.

It was difficult for the first disciples to understand that Gentiles, those of various languages and customs and with no adherence to Jewish laws and customs, were receiving the same Spirit that came down upon the apostles at Pentecost. The early gatherings of Jewish and Gentile Christians were often awkward and required negotiation and discernment of what was "essential" to worship and what could change and sometimes needed to change. These early communities drew others to themselves by the proclamation of a Risen Lord and merciful God that they witnessed in their care for one another and for the poor and needy around them. Their attraction was a desire to learn what motivated how they loved others.

What one small act of love does Christ invite you to perform in gratitude for God's presence and action in your life? Saint Theresa of Calcutta spoke of the importance not of doing great things, but of doing small things with great love. How does God call you this day to live your Baptism into Christ as priest, prophet, and king; to breathe out your Confirmation as you share the Spirit's gifts in you; to become the Eucharist that joins us to one another in Christ as his presence and action in the world? How will you be known this day as not only a Christian, but a disciple?

Easter Peace,

F. Bill

Scripture Reflections

It was extraordinary. No one could have ever expected it to happen. People whom the Jewish people normally referred to as the dogs, the gentiles, were listening to the preaching of Jewish missionaries and were flocking to become members of the New Way, the Way of Jesus Christ. So many people throughout the various lands were becoming Christians that Paul and Barnabas had to establish Christian communities in these foreign lands. They called each of these communities Churches, not just referring to the building but to the people united in the New Way. Extraordinary. The gentiles were receiving the Word of God and responding. This was beyond the comprehension of the ancient Hebrews. They were the Chosen People. How could others also receive God's choice? Who would have thought? When Paul and Barnabas reported all this to the Christian Community of Antioch, they were convinced that God had done this. He had called the gentiles to himself. The world was being transformed. It's all new.

"Behold, I make all things New," the One who sits on the Throne said in the second reading from the Book of Revelations. The old order has passed away. There will be a new heaven, a new earth, a new Jerusalem. This theme of newness is continued in today's Gospel where Jesus says, "I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another." There is to be a new relationship with God, and a new relationship with each other.

Here is something else that is new: there is a new way of living experienced in the way we Christians treat each other and reach out to those in the world around us. "This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another." The greatest proof of our faith is not a theological or philosophical argument that can be made to defend the faith or some individual dogma, or belief of the faith. The greatest proof of our faith is found in the way we treat each other and the way that we reach out to all others.

Our faith is ever ancient and ever new. It began 2,000 years ago when the Holy Spirit of the Father and the Son, empowered the disciples on Pentecost Sunday to proclaim the Gospel of Christ to the whole world. It is renewed every time each of us renews our relationship with God and lives this relationship in the way we treat others. So, this year, on Pentecost Weekend, June 8th, how about joining fellow SFXers in an All Parish Service Day. Help us proclaim the Gospel of Christ to the whole world by action as we make our love real by loving one another, as we "make all things new" in LaGrange and surrounding neighborhoods with our acts of kindness.

See, I make all things new."

Thank you, Lord, for making us your Daughters and Sons.

Thank you, Lord, for making us sacred, holy.

Thank you, Lord, for leading us to make your love real in the world by loving one another.

Thank you, Lord, for Easter.

Thank you, Lord, for making all things new.

Deacon Andy Allison

Commemorative Anniversary Book

We are thrilled to introduce the St. Francis Xavier Parish 125th Anniversary book. This commemorative edition contains a history of life at St. Francis Xavier from 1890 to 2015. In its vibrant, colorful pages, hundreds of parishioners and parish leaders share their memories and stories of our parish.

The book is organized into three segments: Past (showing our early history), Present (highlights from 1990 to 2015) and our Investment in the Future (our Capital Campaign and Capital Projects, with approximately 1,000 parish families listed over ten pages who pledged their time, talent, and/or treasure).

The gift of stewardship of hundreds of SFX parishioners is what makes these pages full of warmth and love. Please don't miss this special opportunity to take home a piece of our shared history that will be treasured for generations. The book is $40 and can be purchased by visiting the parish website (www.sfxlg.org) or using the order form below. Orders end June 22, 2019, and books should be back from the printer by end of August. Distribution of the books will take place in Unity Hall, and you will be notified when your copy is ready.

DAY SCHOOL

Family and School Association

The St. Francis Xavier Family and School Association, better known as FSA, provides the supportive link between the families and the school. We are composed of five board members, 40 different committees and hundreds of volunteers. All day school families are members of FSA.

The FSA supports many committees throughout the SFX school community from enrichment programs that enhance curriculum to socials that occur after school hours for students and families to come together and have fun. All of our committees are run by parent volunteers.

"I joined FSA to help bridge the gap between school, parish and families with the many moving parts that comprise such a vibrant community. I especially wanted to help the Xavier community and guide them in getting involved through service. Sending your children to a school with parish community can feel overwhelming. FSA fosters the idea that getting involved can be the key to making connections and friendships that can last a lifetime."

Several highlights during my time on the FSA Board (2015-2017) include welcoming a new principal and saying goodbye to our friend Fr. John Hoffman as he retired, helping us remember that kids and teachers both make up the backbone of the school community alongside our leaders, whether new or old. Another fun highlight was expanding the teacher and staff appreciation program to a monthly event.

A memorable moment... One of the monthly teacher appreciation events was Morning Coffee Cart. We rolled a cart from classroom to classroom with flavored coffees fun treat can really make someone's day!

Another favorite memory... While we are fortunate to have Fr. Hoffman leave in 2017, FSA wanted to send Fr. John off the children. FSA compiled a book of photos and essays of how they saw the light of love or peace in everyday life at St. Francis School or at home into a book dedicated to Fr. Hoffman which was presented to him on the last day of school.

Having been part of the FSA Board allowed me to see the many moving parts that help make up St. Francis Xavier Support systems that truly help nurture the children as strong and loving individuals."

HUMAN CONCERNS

All Parish Service Day

We give thanks for the generosity of St. Francis Xavier parishioners at our first Annual All Parish Service Day. Started in 2010 as part of the parish's 125th Anniversary, this event connects parishioners of all ages with one another to live the Gospel message of discipleship by partnering with social service organizations in our community and throughout Chicago.

Beds Plus

"Health in Action" is a hallmark of St. Francis Xavier. One example is our parish's Beds Plus (Building Emergency Disaster Shelter) program. Started in October 1988, with St. Kathy Sherman as president and Fr. Timothy Lynch as our parish coordinator of volunteers, in October 1988, St. Francis Xavier helped provide a parish emergency overnight shelter in Joyce Hall (October through May) to homeless men, women and children. Hundreds of volunteers have helped over the years, providing a hot dinner, breakfast, follow-up and supervision on Monday nights from 7 p.m. to 7 a.m. In 2015, evening meals (before and after) were provided on Monday nights at St. Francis Xavier to provide emergency shelter and support to 70 individuals who have experienced homelessness.

Habitat For Humanity

Through the generous contribution of time, talent, and treasure, the St. Francis community has been supporting the Clarksdale Mississippi Habitat for Humanity program for 24 years. Every summer SFX sends several teams to Clarksdale to work on homes and we have provided new homes to over 50 deserving families. It usually takes about one year to complete a home and it is common for the SFX teams to work on finishing homes that they started the prior year. To build a home, the local Habitat chapter must raise about $50,000. Upon completion, the resident is provided an interest-free loan from Habitat to pay for the home. In addition to paying for their home, the resident must invest 400 hours of sweat-equity into the construction of their home.

Through your generous support last year we were able to paint, roof, install siding, insulation, and drywall the home we started the previous year and it is now nearly ready for a family. This summer SFX will send three teams to Clarksdale to put the finishing touches on that home and provide repair work for current Habitat homes. We are asking for your support to help us continue our work in Clarksdale and provide affordable housing for those in need. Please note that your support goes directly to funding the construction materials for the habitat houses. The volunteers fund their own food and expenses for the trip.

This summer the Habitat for Humanity weeks are June 15-21, June 22-28 and July 20-26.

The weekend of May 18 and 19 SFX Habitat volunteers will be speaking at all Masses and the second collection will be for Habitat. Please be as generous as you are able. If you would like to donate on line, we have set up a Give Central account specifically for Habitat, located at www.sfxlg.org. Your donations have a direct effect on our ability to provide affordable housing to well deserving families. If you are interested in volunteering for one of the groups, please contact Bob Albertini at 708-482-4836. No building experience is necessary. Thank you for your support and prayers.

Last weekend, four of the Moms of the Parish accepted the invitation to speak at our masses: Michelle McKeown (Sat, 5 pm), Annmarie Gazdziak (Sun, 7:30 am), Kathy Armstrong (9 am), and Megan Moroney (10:30 am & noon). Their reflections on Motherhood and God's loving presence in our everyday lives touched our hearts.

Thank you all for sharing your wisdom, experience and faith. Additional "Thanks!" for your prayerful time in preparation, and for inviting us into your Mother's Day celebration. We are sincerely grateful for your thoughtfulness and generous sharing of so many gifts.

Thanks, Mom!
