Saying Goodbye From Fr. Bill Killeen

Knock, Knock. Who's there? Fr. Bill. Fr. Bill who? That's the point.

For a couple of years, now, when our office staff had to answer the phone and someone would ask to talk to Fr. Bill, they would have to pursue which Fr. Bill. In another week, Fr. Bill Tkachuk will get the call.

If you have not figured it out already, I'm the other Fr. Bill, Fr. Bill Killeen. I know, I know, you are thinking, "Why am I in this space?" "Isn't this the pastor's space." It is, but Fr. Tkachuk asked if I wanted to use his space this weekend. I said yes.

After eight years it is not easy to say good-bye, especially here at St. Francis Xavier. Everyone, young and old have been so encouraging and supportive. I have had two wonderful pastors and a talented and dedicated professional staff and support staff. Those who teach our young people are inspirational and all who are involved in our many organizations are faith filled and Spirit driven.

I will always be indebted to those who helped me in Liturgy and in Pastoral Care. The sacrifice, care and talent that was expressed touched my heart and my soul in too many ways to count. Again, from children, teens, adults, and seniors I saw individuals, couples, families and groups giving witness to the Good News of God's love and care for us and the people we serve. You help make church come alive.

One of the prime ways a priest is privileged to serve is in sacramental moments. So it has been true for me at St. Francis Xavier. From the beginnings of life in Baptism, or the beginnings of love in Marriage, to the ending of life in Anointing, I have witnessed joy and gratitude, dedication and commitment, and pain and sadness. Whether it was the sorrow of the penitent in the Sacrament of Penance or the families grieving the death of a loved one at a funeral, I was fortunate to see God's care, mercy and love in the lives of so many.

My most favorite moments, I must confess, occurred during the many times we came together for Eucharist. Your presence and faith lifted my heart and brought me great comfort. When I gazed out at the youngest reaching out to a parent or a senior during the Our Father and we all express with an inspired voice our belief that we have a God who is proud to have us as his children, my soul soars. Thank you so much for being the wind beneath my wings.

For you and all the thousands that I was so fortunate to serve over these last forty-five years, thank you.

Fr. Bill Killeen

June 15, 2019

Dear Parishioners of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish,

In January, I informed you of the accusation against your pastor, Father Patrick Lee, and that, in keeping with our procedures, he was asked to step aside from his pastoral duties until a thorough investigation and process could be completed. He has fully cooperated with civil authorities and the Archdiocese of Chicago during these months.

Following the determination by state officials, who are charged with the protection of minors, that the allegation of child abuse was unfounded, the Independent Review Board of the Archdiocese of Chicago studied the matter in accordance with our usual procedures. At their meeting on Saturday, June 15, 2019, they found that there was insufficient reason to suspect that Father Lee had committed sexual abuse of a minor. Therefore, I am pleased to inform you that I am reinstating Father Lee as your pastor effective immediately.

These have been difficult days and months for you as a parish. You have shown great patience as each jurisdiction has completed its process. I thank you for doing so. Father Lee has also suffered, as you well know, but he has offered that suffering freely, convinced of the need for us as a Church to keep our word that the protection and safety of our children remains the priority.

After the Independent Review Board meeting, I immediately contacted Father Lee and shared the recommendations of the Review Board. He took the occasion to reaffirm his longstanding conviction that the Church must remain vigilant in protecting our children, and that we should spare no effort to bring healing to victim survivors who have been harmed. In keeping with the spirit he has demonstrated during these difficult months, he let me know that he fully embraces our longstanding policies and practices regarding the conduct of all church personnel, and asked that I take the occasion of this letter to remind our parishioners and the public that: 1) since 1992, we have enforced safe environment protocols and a code of conduct for all who work with minors and we have reached out to victims with pastoral and personal attention; 2) since 2002 we have reported all allegations to the civil authorities and in that year we reported all historical allegations to these authorities; 3) beginning in 2006, we have publicly listed the names of priests who have substantiated allegations of abuse of minors against them and in 2014 we published more than 20,000 pages of information on these cases; 4) in accord with our zero tolerance policy, no priest with even one substantiated allegation of abuse of a minor remains in ministry.

At the same time, I reminded Father Lee that our policies also call us to do everything possible to restore the good name of priests when the process has determined the allegations to be unfounded. This, too, is a matter of justice. Therefore, both out of regard for Father Lee and all our priests, I am resolved to see that Father Lee's good name is restored. As a result, I will share this letter with all the parishes in the Archdiocese of Chicago, asking them to provide it to their parishioners. This letter will also be sent to the media and posted on our archdiocesan website.

Healing now must be the pathway forward for all of us. Father Lee shares this very same sentiment and you can honor him by doing everything to make sure that a spirit of reconciliation and unity prevails as you move ahead with the efforts of Renew My Church to make your parish vibrant, vital and sustainable. In this way, the mission of Jesus can flourish.

That is my prayer for you.

Sincerely Yours in Christ,

Krispy Kreme Donut Sale

Back Door Theater is holding their annual Krispy Kreme donut sale today (Sunday, June 23) after all of the masses. Donuts are $9.00 a dozen and all profits go to cover the costs of this year's production which will be held July 12 at Nazareth Academy. Back Door Theater's mission is to engage young people in an experience of faith through the expressive arts as a part of the larger faith communities of Grace Lutheran and St. Francis Xavier. The monetary donations given at the door of the production go to help stock the shelves of the Food Pantry so in order to put on a great show we rely on your generosity (and your sweet tooth). Please stop by any of the exits after masses today.

Last weekend, five parish Dads accepted the invitation to speak at our masses: Jeff Olson (Saturday 5:00 pm), Charlie Brewick (Sunday 7:30 am), Sean McDermott (9:00 am), Homer Abiad (10:30 am), and Joe Clark (noon). Their reflections on fatherhood, faith, community and the wonderful ways God is present in our lives each and every day touched our hearts.

Thank you all for sharing your faith-filled stories and wisdom with us. Additional "Thanks!" for your prayerful time in preparation, and for inviting us into your Father's Day celebration. We are sincerely grateful for your thoughtfulness and generous sharing of so many gifts.

If you or anyone you know should be considered to give a Mother's or Father's Day reflection next year, please contact Kate DeVries at 708-352-0168 or kdevries@sfxlg.org.

“13th” Movie screening and discussion on Saturday, July 20 from 1:00–4:00 pm. Just think, slavery would have been abolished in 1865 by the 13th Amendment (hence the film’s title), but for one small clause that all but grandfathered slavery back in for the sake of crime and punishment. This powerful and infuriating documentary explores the history of racial inequality in the United States, focusing on the fact that the nation’s prisons are disproportionately filled with African-Americans. Cost: Free will offering.

Thomas Berry: A Biography—a discussion with Mary Evelyn Tucker and John Grim on Wednesday, July 24 from 7:00–8:30 pm. Thomas Berry (1914–2009) was one of the 20th Century’s most profound and forward-thinking “geologians”, who sought to replace the modern alienation from nature with a sense of intimacy and responsibility. Mary Evelyn Tucker and John Grim teach at Yale University, where they direct the Forum on Religion and Ecology. They knew Thomas Berry well, edited his books, and co-authored the first biography of this great man. Cost: $20 (the book will be available at this program).

Life-Changers: The Gospel According to Hildegard and Julian of Norwich on Saturday, August 3 from 9:30 am–3:30 pm with Facilitator Mark Burrows. G. K. Chesterton once commented that the saint each age most needs is the one who contradicts it most. Hildegard and Julian of Norwich were such persons. Each discovered insights into the “good news” that have enduring power to reframe life. Cost: $75 (includes lunch).
