Pastor's Notes

“What profit would there be for you to gain the whole world and forfeit your life?”

Matthew 16:26

“Father, what does Jesus have against being wealthy?” The question came from a man who was generous in his contributions of time, talent, and treasure. He was blessed with a comfortable income that allowed him both freedom and the ability to enjoy nice vacations with his family. Yet when he heard Jesus speaking of wealth, he felt that he was being judged. When Labor Day sermons emphasized Church teachings on the dignity of human labor and an obligation to support just wages and safe working conditions for all, these feelings intensified.

Jesus does not focus on the acquisition, possession, or lack of wealth; he does not advocate for a specific economic or political system. Rather, Jesus warns about the dangers of preoccupation with material wealth, whether by the one who possesses it or the one who seeks it. Jesus prioritizes the wealth of the Kingdom of God above all distractions – including the possession or pursuit of material wealth. It is not about what I have, but rather how I offer what I have been given to serve my vocation, my calling, within the Body of Christ, and to help others to do the same. Does my “wealth,” in whatever form, lead me to enrich my family, my community, and the world community to reflect God’s mercy in my relationships with others and the systems and structures that shape society.

Labor Day was established as a day to support and celebrate the rights of workers to organize for mutual support, just wages, and safe working conditions. The Catholic Church was at the heart of this struggle in its early years. In our day, advocating for the dignity of human labor may involve complicated and conflicting political and social concerns. Nonetheless, the social teachings of the Church continue to challenge us to ensure that society respect the dignity of all human labor in its systems, structures, laws, and practices – to ensure that wealth is never acquired at the expense of others, and that wealth and its legitimate pursuit remain connected to the common good.

Perhaps Labor Day encourages us to make a personal connection with another’s labor. We might seek to learn more about the labor that makes or repairs our cars, builds or remodels our homes, or expands and repairs our infrastructure. We might learn and use the name of the person who serves us at a restaurant, delivers our mail, or tallies our groceries. We might offer a greeting to those who collect our recyclables and trash, serve and protect our community, or teach our children and youth. We might look for some way to “share the wealth” that we bring to one another as we serve the common good through the work of our hands.

Let us offer our prayers and support to the people of Texas and Louisiana as they face the challenges of grieving what they have lost and rebuilding their lives and communities.

*Peace,
Fr. Bill*

Scripture Reflection

This gospel begins with a clear statement of what we call the paschal mystery: Jesus will “suffer,” “be killed,” and “be raised.” Peter recoils at this statement of Jesus’ fate. So do we! Suffering and death is hardly an attraction that we would seek and make central in our daily lives. Yet it must be, for Jesus attests that the only way to have our life is to lose it. Why would we want to make losing our life—suffering and death—something central to our daily living? Like Peter, we tend to limit our vision by focusing only on the suffering and death, only on the bad news. The fullness of the paschal mystery always leads through suffering and death to new Life. And this is good news, indeed—the best of good news!

Authentic discipleship doesn’t require us to seek suffering. Being faithful to Jesus will bring enough as it is. This is so because living and witnessing to Gospel values challenges so many values society touts are the ones that will bring us happiness. Ultimately, though, we find that only living Gospel values brings us lasting happiness, even though we must die to self in the process. All who wish to be faithful to Jesus’ call to Gospel living must be prepared to suffer—and also be prepared to receive new life. The Life Jesus offers is worth any price!

THANK YOU Off to a COOL Start for 2017-2018!

Thank you to each and every person who contributed to our annual Building Our Future Fund last year. We are so grateful to our school and parish families for the incredible support that pushed us up and over our goal of $130,000! Not only did we close the tuition gap, we were able to launch some fantastic initiatives to improve the school building that is utilized by so many ministries and community groups.

The most noticeable improvement is the installation of air conditioning units to all the classrooms. This “cool” addition will keep students and staff comfortable during the day, technology stored in much better room temperatures, and classrooms and meeting spaces welcoming for Religious Education, SPRED, and all other groups that meet in the school. The exterior trim around the units will be painted by the fall.

God bless you for your generosity and God bless all families in the parish as we kick off a new school year!

Your Parish Finances

Blessings on this Labor Day Weekend. We will update you next week with collection activity.

From the beginning of our new fiscal year (July 1, 2017) to date, our Sunday donations have been lower than the same time last year. You can support your parish with your signup for withdrawals from your checking or savings bank account (using the form on the opposite page of this bulletin) or sign-up for credit card offerings online (visit <http://parish.sfxlg.org/giving/>).

You may note that we have not yet reported how we are doing against budget. We have finalized the Day School’s budget, and thus will soon return to reporting how our Year-To-Date collections compare against our budget.

God bless you for your financial commitment to your Parish. You have shared abundantly your time, talent, and treasure to support the many ministries here at St. Francis Xavier!

UNITY HALL AND FUNERAL VISITATIONS – PART TWO

These early months of experimenting with Unity Hall are a time of learning the creative possibilities and the limits of our new space. This summer, the parish staff discussed the challenges of making Unity Hall available for visitations on the day before the Funeral Mass (the traditional wake). As I announced in July, we have determined that we cannot accommodate an evening wake as a general rule; it too often would conflict with parish meetings, ministries, and activities, and requires accommodations for families and friends that a Funeral Home is better equipped to provide.

Our intention remains to offer visitations on the day of Funeral Mass in Unity Hall when the family prefers to begin at the church rather than at the Funeral Home. This can occur whenever the church is not in use for another service. To minimize facilities maintenance support, visitations in Unity Hall offer these accommodations:

- Podium for a guest book and two easels for photo boards or other items
- Kneeler (when a funeral director is available to move one from the church)
- One floral arrangement (additional floral arrangements can be placed in the church)
- Cups for water
- The basic room setting of four round tables with chairs will remain in place, and no food or drinks other than water are allowed in Unity Hall.
- When the parish can provide the required facilities support, three additional accommodations are available, for which a facilities fee will be asked.
- Use of the projector and other audiovisual equipment in Unity Hall
- Resetting the tables and chairs in the room (removing or adding)
- Two additional easels

I ask your patience and understanding as we continue to consider how Unity Hall can best support our mission and ministries.

Peace, Fr. Bill Tkachuk

Your Invitation to Learn More about Catholicism

RCIA is a process of questioning and conversation for non-Catholics who wish to know more about the Church, and for Catholics who have not received the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation.

New this year: St. Cletus, St. John of the Cross and St. Francis Xavier have combined efforts, to present the best of our three programs to participants. Leaders from all three churches will walk with you throughout the process. If you have been thinking about becoming Catholic or completing your sacraments, please consider joining us.

How it works: We will meet on Tuesday evenings, from 7:00-8:30 pm, and on some Sundays at various times from September 19-April 24. There are 4 stages in the Process:

- 1. Inquiry – a time to explore where God is calling you, ask questions, experience and learn about the faith, including: God, Jesus, the role of community, prayer, scripture, Mary, the saints; also, a tour of St. Francis Xavier Church. September 19-November 5; meets primarily at St. Cletus.
- 2. Catechumenate– a time to dive deeper into key elements of Catholicism including: our approach to scripture, why we do what we do, signs & symbols, ritual, church history, what we believe, the 7 sacraments, and the mass. November 7-February 13; meets primarily at St. Francis Xavier.
- 3. Enlightenment– a time of reflection and prayer before receiving the sacraments. February 20-March 24; meets primarily at St. John of the Cross; Sacraments will take place at the Easter Vigil, Saturday, April 1, 8:00 pm at St. Francis Xavier.
- 4. Mystagogy– a time to reflect on your experience, and what it means to live out your new life as part of the Body of Christ. April 10-24; meets primarily at St. Francis Xavier.

Next Step: Contact Kate DeVries at kdevries@sfxlg.org or 708-352-0168 to make an appointment to discuss your desires and how the RCIA Process can support your journey of faith.

On Sunday, August 20, the LaGrange Area Ministerium, made up of leaders from the churches in the LaGrange area, invited members of our communities to gather to pray for peace at the Fountain by our Village Hall. Fr. Tkachuk, a number of the Sisters of St. Joseph, and other parishioners took part in the vigil. May we all embrace and live out the words of the closing prayer:

“May you go forth to love your neighbor and build a just world for all, may you see with the eyes of our Creator that all Creation’s children are beautiful and deserving of love and respect; may you reach out in love to all, with no regard for race, creed, or homeland; and may you be accompanied by the Spirit of Life so that you may be sustained as you commit to your part of the ongoing courage in the struggle for peace and justice.”

This Labor Day weekend, Arise Chicago is pleased to bring you a message about the sacred link between faith and labor and the dignity of all work.

As Cardinal Cupich stated, “For centuries, but especially over the last 125 years, the Catholic Church has offered a strong and principled vision on the dignity of work and justice for workers. Pope Leo XIII called for standards of justice in the work place including the right to a living wage, the right to safe work places, the right to health care, and to the need to provide for retirement.”

Pope Francis declared that work, “Anoints us with dignity, fills us with dignity and makes us similar to God.”

The work that each of us performs is vital for the common good. God calls us to act so that each person will have a seat at the table, and can fully contribute and enjoy the abundance of God's creation. Happy Labor Day!

**This program is coordinated by Arise Chicago, an interfaith worker center that partners with immigrants and leaders from the religious, government, legal, labor and academic communities to end workplace abuse. Questions? Please email luke@arisechicago.org or call 872-223-8415.*

Thank You

Thank you for hosting a week of summer shelter this year. We are delighted to report that after two summer shelter programs, BEDS Plus is confident we will continue this important program. We very much appreciate your involvement.

Thanks to your partnership, 39 total clients found respite from the elements and had more time to work in their housing plans. Over 80 volunteers made 63 nights of shelter a reality and served 125 of delicious homemade meals. Over the course of the summer, 9 clients were housed from the program and we are anticipating housing at least 2 more very soon. Thank you for your role in this important ministry.

In gratitude,
Erin Molek & Tina Rounds

Taizé Prayer

St. Francis Xavier
Grace Lutheran

*All are invited to our
Taizé Evening Prayer
Friday, September 8
7:30 pm
at
St. Francis Xavier*

Taizé Prayer is contemplative and most importantly communal, combining simple repetitive melodies that are sung by all, prayerful silence, scripture reading and intercessory prayer. This prayer can promote a kind of inner unity of person, allowing the spirit to be more open and attentive to what is essential. It is our hope that you will join us, especially at this time when our world is much in need of prayer.

Why Buy Fair Trade Coffee??

The coffee sold at St. Francis Xavier is purchased from Equal Exchange Fairly Traded. There is a lot behind this coffee. "We work closely with our farmer partners, year after year, to better understand each other's needs. The result is a trusting relationship and delicious coffee."

Beth Ann Caspersen, Quality Control Manager

Fair Trade builds right relationships between buyers and sellers that are rooted in the principles of human dignity and solidarity.

Fair Trade:

- Respects human dignity
- Promotes the common good
- Advances economic justice
- Empowers disadvantaged people
- Connects us with the people who create the things we buy
- Cultivates global solidarity

The Catholic Relief Services Fair Trade Program creates opportunities for us to bring these core values of our faith to bear on the choices we make as consumers—choices that have the power to lift our brothers and sisters out of poverty.

Effort is made to see that these coffee farmers are given a fair wage!!!

Lost and Found

The Lost and Found cabinet located outside the church restroom is emptied each month. Please check it if you think that you have left something in church. In the upcoming week, items in lost and found will be brought to the Community Nurses' Resale Shop.
